3. What are my obligations?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Prohibited Uses You must not use the card for an unlawful purpose, including the purchase of goods or services prohibited by the laws of Brunei Darussalam or any other country where the card is used or where the goods or services are provided or use the card if it is found after having been reported as lost or stolen. - Liability for Lost/Stolen, Non-Receipt¹ Cards If your Card is lost or stolen or non-receipt, please notify us immediately by calling our 24-hour Customer Helpline at +6732449666. Please keep this number handy since you will be responsible for all Card Transactions before the Card is reported lost or stolen or non-receipt. If your Card is lost or stolen overseas, you will need to make a police report in that country, especially if you intend to dispute any non-genuine transactions. - Liability for Unauthorized Use or Disclosure You should safeguard your Debit Card and ensure your Card and the PIN is not disclosed to any person at all times. You must take all steps and precaution to prevent any forgery, fraud, loss, unauthorized use or theft in respect of or in relation to the Card and the PIN. ¹ In the event you requested for your card to be couriered, however, informed that you did not receive the card even though there was confirmation from the courier company of delivery and signed acknowledgement of receipt or you collected your card at a branch and later claimed that you did not receive the card.
4. What if I fail to fulfill my obligations?
You shall be liable for any/all unauthorized Card Transactions effected following such loss, theft or disclosure of the Card and the PIN whether or not if such loss, theft or disclosure is a result of your negligence.
5. What are the key terms of this product?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Hold on Account The Bank may debit or place a hold on your account for a card transaction either on the day it is presented to the Bank for payment or on the day the Bank receives notice of the card transaction, whichever is earlier. The Bank shall have the absolute discretion to place such amounts on hold for such periods as it deems fit. Upon the expiry of such periods, the Bank shall debit such amounts on hold to the account if the card transactions were presented to the Bank for payment or credit such amounts placed on hold back to the account if the card transactions were not presented to the Bank for payment. The Bank shall have the absolute discretion to continue to place such amounts on hold if it is of the opinion that the card transactions would be presented for payment within a reasonable time. The Bank's right to debit the account shall not be limited to the amount that was placed on hold in connection with that card transaction. If the amount of any card transaction is denominated in a currency other than Brunei Dollars, the Bank shall have the right to increase at any time the amount placed on hold in view that the amount initially placed on hold when converted into that foreign currency would not be sufficient to satisfy payment of that card transaction in full.

If a Merchant or establishment request for an authorization of a card transaction, the Bank may place a hold on the account for the amount of the card transaction. If the amount of the card transaction is posted to the account before the hold expires, the balance available to the cardholder in the account is reduced by the amount of the card transaction. The cardholder may not stop payment on a card transaction.
